

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Chapter 1: Evaluating the Client	3
A. The Initial Consultation and Being a “Debt-Relief Agency”	4
B. Required Disclosures for DRAs: Too Much and Never Enough.....	6
C. Credit Counseling & Debtor Education	8
1. Requirements	8
2. Exceptions	9
D. Completing the Schedules: Software Programs	10
E. Preparing the Client for the § 341 Meeting of Creditors	11
F. Dealing with Case Audits	12
G. Attorneys’ Fees	13
1. Chapter 7 Fees.....	13
2. Chapter 13 Fees	14
Chapter 2: Finding the Right Chapter	17
A. Eligibility.....	19
1. Definition of a Debtor	19
2. Chapter 13 Debt Limits: Noncontingent and Liquidated Liabilities Explained.....	21
3. Chapter 11: The Final Frontier for Individual Debtors with Assets and Income	22
4. Statutory Time Limitations for Consumer Debtors.....	23
B. Income.....	28
1. The Means Test	29
2. The Presumption of Abuse.....	29
Chapter 3: Exemption Uncertainties and the Plight of the Peripatetic Debtor	31
A. The Choice of Exemption Law.....	32

B. The 2005 Change in Choice of Law..... 34
 C. Six Categories of Exemption Eligibility 35
 D. Does the Savings Clause Ensure a Complete Set of Exemptions? ... 40
 E. Conclusion..... 46

Chapter 4: Beware the Two-Timing Debtor: Section 362(c)(3) May Not Mean What You Think 49

A. Introduction..... 50
 B. The Purpose of § 362(c)(3)(A): To Give Secured Lenders and Landlords a Break by Making Bankruptcy More Complicated for Second-Time Filers..... 52
 C. Section 362(C)(3)(A): The 30-Day Clock Is Ticking, but as to What and to Whom?..... 53
 D. Section 362(c)(3)(C) Heightened Standard of Proof Is an Undue Burden on Creditors and Trustees 57
 E. The Majority View: “With Respect to the Debtor” Sort of Kind of Means What It Says, and if Congress Had Meant Otherwise, It Would Have Said So 58
 F. The Minority View: The Statute Is Ambiguous, So Let’s Look at Congressional Intent Through the Tea Leaves of Legislative History.. 62
 G. Conclusion..... 64

Chapter 5: Death and Inheritance..... 67

A. Introduction..... 68
 B. Death of the Debtor 69
 1. Death After Filing a Bankruptcy Case..... 70
 2. Death Prior to § 341 Meeting (Chapter 7 or Chapter 13)..... 71
 C. Inheritance 80

Chapter 6: Discharge 89

A. Introduction..... 90
 B. Pursuing a Discharge in Chapter 7 vs. Chapter 13..... 90
 C. Student Loans 92
 D. Actual Fraud, Justifiable Reliance, and Imputed Liability for Fraud... 97

E. Debts Incurred While Acting in a Fiduciary Capacity.....	100
F. Litigating the Purpose of a Domestic Support Obligation.....	101
G. Proving Willful Tax Evasion.....	103
H. Adversary Proceedings Under § 523.....	104
Chapter 7: Special Issues.....	107
A. Thorny Issues Related to Proofs of Claim.....	108
1. Proof-of-Claim Bar Date.....	109
2. Late-Filed Claims.....	109
3. Bankruptcy Rule 3004.....	112
4. Claim Objections.....	115
B. Thorny Issues Related to the Debtor’s Statement of Intention.....	116
1. The Viability of the “Ride-Through” Option.....	117
2. Surrender of Property Pursuant to the Statement of Intention.....	119
Chapter 8: The ABI Commission on Consumer Bankruptcy.....	121
A. Introduction.....	122
B. Student Loans.....	123
C. Remedies for Discharge Violation.....	128
D. Protection of Interests in Collateral Repossessed Pre-Petition.....	130
E. Chapter 7 Attorneys’ Fees.....	131
F. Attorney Competency and Remediating Lawyer Misconduct.....	135
G. Credit Counseling and Financial-Management Course.....	136
H. Means Test Revisions and Interpretations.....	140
I. Chapter 13 Debt Limits.....	142
J. Racial Justice in Bankruptcy.....	144
K. Reserve Fund in Chapter 13 Cases.....	146
L. Chapter 7 Trustee Compensation.....	148